1 SCOPE

- 1.1 These Conditions shall apply to all contracts and agreements between Exlar and the Customer, whether written or oral, for the sale or supply by Exlar of any Products and/or Services, to the exclusion of any other terms and conditions on which any purchase order or other offer has been given to Exlar.
- 1.2 In case of any inconsistency between the terms and conditions of any Quotation, purchase order, acknowledgement or form of contract sent from the Customer to Exlar, or contained in any other communication between the Customer and, Exlar or any terms and conditions implied by trade, custom, practice or prior course of dealings, and these Conditions, then these Conditions shall prevail. Additional or alternative terms and conditions shall not apply unless expressly accepted in writing and signed by an authorized representative of Exlar. Additional, alternative or contradictory provisions contained in any purchase order, acknowledgement or other communication from the Customer are hereby expressly rejected and shall have no binding effect.
- 1.3 Each purchase order, acknowledgement or form of contract sent from the Customer to Exlar for the supply of Products and/or Services shall be deemed to be an offer by the Customer to purchase Products and/or Services subject to these terms and conditions. Exlar may accept or reject any such offer to purchase. Silence on the part of Exlar shall not constitute acceptance of Customer's offer to purchase.

2 ORDERS AND ACCEPTANCE

- 2.1 Where Customer places a blanket/call-off Order, ordered quantities are firm and all Products must be scheduled for delivery no later than fifteen (15) months from the date of Order. Any requests to change the delivery schedule of a blanket/call-off Order must be received in writing no later than sixty (60) days prior to the scheduled delivery date of any Products which Customer is seeking to reschedule. Exlar shall use their reasonable commercial endeavors to change such date(s) but are under no obligation to change agreed dates. Failure to take delivery of Products on agreed delivery dates shall be deemed a termination of the Order and shall be subject to Exlar's Order Cancellation Policy OCP-1.

3 PRICE AND PAYMENT

- 3.1 All prices quoted by Exlar are exclusive of Value Added Tax and all other sales, use, excise taxes, duties, charges or similar. Where prices are published in standard pricelists or pricing schedules, these prices are subject to change without notice.
- 3.2 Unless otherwise stated in any Quotation or otherwise expressly agreed in writing, all prices are exclusive of all shipping costs and insurance, which shall be invoiced to and be paid by the Customer as additional charges.
- 3.3 Unless otherwise stated in any Quotation or otherwise expressly agreed in writing, all prices are exclusive of the cost of installation, engineering and related charges, which shall be invoiced to and be paid by the Customer as additional charges.
- 3.4 Unless otherwise agreed in writing, the Customer shall make payment of the purchase price in the currency stated in the Quotation, at the times stated in the Order or otherwise upon delivery of the Products and/or completion of the Services, without deduction or set off of any kind in accordance with Article 3.6. Unless otherwise agreed on the Order, specially configured or non-standard Products and blanket Orders placed by Customer are subject to the following milestone payments: 30% on placement of Order; 70% on delivery of the Products (partial deliveries against an Order may be invoiced separately).
- 3.5 In the event that manufacture, shipment or delivery of the Products or performance of Services is delayed either at the request of the Customer or by reason of the Customer's act or omission (including the Customer's failure to ready the site for installation), or any extreme weather conditions or non-standard site conditions, payment of the balance of the purchase price shall nevertheless fall due on the date on which payment would otherwise have fallen due but for such act, omission or event. Risk in the Products shall pass to the Customer as if the Products had been delivered in accordance with the original delivery schedule and Exlar may ship the Products (in either completed or incomplete form) to either a storage facility designated by the Customer, or to any storage facility designated by Exlar, and the Customer shall (without limiting any other right or remedy available to Exlar) pay to Exlar upon demand the amount of any additional storage, transport or other, costs and insurance expense incurred by Exlar.

- 3.6 Each payment shall be made within thirty (30) days of the date of invoice, either by prepaid telegraphic transfer to an account designated by Exlar or by irrevocable letter of credit confirmed by a U.S. bank approved by Exlar, and payable upon presentation of invoice and customary shipping documents. Except where a credit account has been opened for the customer by Exlar, payment shall be made in advance of Products being released for shipment against a pro-forma invoice.
- 3.7 If the Customer disputes any invoice or part thereof, the Customer shall immediately pay the undisputed portion of the invoice and shall immediately notify Exlar in writing of the reasons for such dispute. The parties shall seek to resolve the dispute within fourteen days of such notification. Upon resolution of the dispute, such sum as is agreed by the parties as payable shall be paid immediately to Exlar, together with any interest due under Article (a).
- (a) In addition to any other rights and remedies Exlar may have, if any payment due to Exlar is not made on the due date: the Customer will pay interest on the overdue amount for the time being outstanding, calculated on a daily basis at a variable rate of six per cent per annum from the due date until the date of actual payment time, and compounded monthly;
 - (b) Exlar may suspend further deliveries to the Customer until all sums overdue from the Customer have been paid;
 - (c) all sums invoiced by Exlar to the Customer (whether or not outstanding) shall become immediately due and payable in full;
 - (d) all outstanding bonds issued by Exlar if any, shall be released; and
 - (e) Exlar may deduct the same from any sum then due to the Customer under the Order or any other contract between Exlar and the Customer.
- 3.8 Exlar may, as a condition of the performance of any of its manufacturing, supply or other obligations under its contract with the Customer, require the Customer to provide to Exlar written evidence in a form satisfactory to Exlar that the Customer has secured the finances necessary for the Customer to pay the purchase price. Without limiting any other right or remedy available to Exlar, Exlar may cease or delay the manufacture, or shipment, or installation of any Product until the Customer has provided such evidence to Exlar. If the Customer fails to provide such evidence to Exlar's satisfaction, Exlar may terminate immediately upon written notice all or part of the Order without liability to Exlar.

4 DELIVERY, TITLE AND RISK OF LOSS

- 4.1 All times and dates given by Exlar for delivery of Products and performance of Services are given in good faith, and Exlar shall use reasonable efforts to meet such delivery times and dates, but time shall not be of the essence and, except as expressly provided for in this Article 4.1, Exlar shall have no liability to the Customer in the event of a delay in delivery or performance.
- 4.2 The Customer shall make available free of charge and risk to Exlar at the times stated in the Quotation or otherwise in a timely manner all necessary personnel, materials, equipment, resources, instructions, documents, licenses, authorizations, approvals and site access ("Customer Resources") reasonably required by Exlar to supply the Products and/or Services, and where applicable, the Customer shall remove any Customer Resources which are at Exlar's premises and which have not been incorporated into the Products, at its sole expense on expiry or earlier termination of any Order. The Customer hereby represents and warrants that it has the full right, authority and license to supply and disclose the Customer Resources and that any Customer Resource and its use by Exlar for the purpose of supplying the Products and/or Services will not infringe the copyright or other intellectual property rights of any third party.
- 4.3 In the event of any failure or delay on the part of the Customer in supplying the Customer Resources, or if the same are not in accordance with the Order or are not fit for the purpose provided, then Exlar may notify the Customer thereof, and the Customer shall as soon as reasonably practicable and at its own expense supply replacement Customer Resources. Exlar may: (i) extend the period for delivery of the Products and/or Services by a reasonable time; and/or (ii) adjust the price to reflect any additional costs incurred by Exlar as a result thereof and the Customer shall pay such additional charges; and/or (iii) serve notice under Article 11.1(b).
- 4.4 Unless otherwise expressly stated in the Quotation or Order, delivery of Products shall take place Free Carrier (FCA) (in accordance with Incoterms® 2020) at the place where the Product is handed to a carrier for carriage either to the Customer or to a storage facility pursuant to Article 3.5, at which point title to, risk of damage to, and loss of the Products shall pass to the Customer. For the avoidance of doubt any such transfer of title in the Products shall not imply transfer of ownership of any Intellectual Property therein. Where Exlar arrange delivery of the Products at Customer's request and expense, such delivery does not change the Incoterm under which the Products are delivered. In the event the carrier or forwarder specified by the Customer is unresponsive or does not support delivery of the Product(s) on our scheduled delivery date(s), Exlar will choose a carrier or forwarder at its' discretion to provide timely delivery of the Order(s).
- 4.5 As security for the full and prompt payment of all amounts owed by the Customer to Exlar the Customer grants Exlar a security interest in all Products and their proceeds, supplied by Exlar to the Customer. The Customer shall execute all such documents and do all such other things as may be reasonably necessary or desirable to perfect and register such security interest.

- 4.6 In addition to Exlar's rights under Article 11, if the Customer fails to pay or perform when due any amount or obligation owing to Exlar under these Conditions, or if the Customer ceases or threatens to cease to carry on business or substantially the whole of its business, becomes unable to pay its debts, becomes insolvent or bankrupt, enters into liquidation, or a receiver, administrator, administrative receiver, manager, trustee or similar officer is appointed in relation to it or over any of its assets, or any action is taken or threatened by or against it analogous to the foregoing in any jurisdiction, then Exlar may declare all amounts and obligations of the Customer owing to Exlar immediately due and payable, and Exlar shall have the rights and remedies of a secured party.
- 4.7 For as long as payment is overdue, the Customer shall, if requested, deliver up the Products which have not been paid for in full to Exlar and, if the Customer refuses, Exlar shall be entitled at any time to recover possession of such Products from the Customer. Exlar or its duly authorized agent is hereby irrevocably authorized to enter upon the land and into the premises of the Customer during normal business hours to take possession of the Products.
- 4.8 In the event that period of delay referenced in Article 3.5 exceeds six months, Exlar shall be entitled (at its sole discretion) to cancel the Order and to retain any amount of the purchase price already paid, whereupon Exlar's further obligations to the Customer shall be extinguished. Nothing in this Article 4.8 shall restrict Exlar's right to pursue damages or any other remedy to which Exlar may be entitled as a matter of law.
- 4.9 Exlar reserves the right to make substitutions, modifications and improvements to the Products or Services ordered by the Customer provided that such substitutions, modifications, or improvements shall not adversely affect the functionality or performance of the Products or the quality of the Services, in a manner material to the intended application of the Products or Services.
- 4.10 Exlar shall have the right to make, and the Customer agrees to accept, delivery by instalments.
- 4.11 Upon delivery, it shall be the responsibility of the Customer to inspect the condition of the Products and that they conform to the Order. The Customer shall have no claim against Exlar by reason of the defects in the condition of the Products at time of delivery or failure to conform with the Order unless the Customer provides written notice of such defect or failure to conform to Exlar within five days of delivery by Exlar of the Products.

- 14.3 Customer shall not do anything that might be prejudicial to any proceedings or actions. Customer shall do nothing which would or might vitiate any insurance which the Customer may have relating to any claimed infringement and shall use its best endeavors to claim costs, or damages awarded against the Customer under such insurance, which shall be offset against any settlement costs or damages to be paid by Exlar in accordance with this Article 14. Without prejudice to any duty of the Customer at common law, Customer shall take such steps as Exlar may require to mitigate or reduce any such settlement costs or damages to be paid by Exlar in accordance with this Article 14.

- 15.2 Exlar shall not be obliged to safeguard or hold confidential any data, technical or other information, furnished by the Customer for Exlar's supply of Products and/or performance of Services unless (and only to the extent that) the Customer and Exlar have entered into a separate written confidentiality agreement.
- 15.3 All rights in any intellectual property created, designed, or conceived by Exlar in connection with or arising out of the performance of the Order by Exlar shall vest exclusively in Exlar and/or its suppliers. Except as agreed to in writing by Exlar no work performed by Exlar shall be considered a work made for hire.

16 INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

It is expressly agreed that unauthorized reproduction, disclosure or unauthorized use of the Software or disclosure by the Customer of any of Exlar's Confidential Information or proprietary data supplied to the Customer will cause immediate and irreparable harm to Exlar for which money would be an inadequate remedy. In addition to any and all remedies available at law, Exlar shall be entitled to injunctive or other equitable remedies in all legal proceedings in the event of any threatened or actual reproduction, disclosure or use of Exlar's Confidential Information or proprietary data.

17 GOVERNING LAW AND JURISDICTION

- 17.2 All disputes arising out of or in connection with these Conditions and each supply of Products, Software and/or Services by Exlar to the Customer other than a claim for monies due from the Customer to Exlar but including its existence, validity or termination, shall be referred to and finally resolved in accordance with Article 18. All proceedings shall be conducted in the English language.
- 17.3 Nothing in this Article 17 shall restrict the jurisdiction of any court that would, apart from the provisions of Article 17 or 18, have jurisdiction over a dispute arising out of or in connection with these Conditions for the purpose of enforcing any right or remedy of either party by means of injunctive relief, specific performance or equivalent remedy which an arbitrator appointed pursuant to Article 18 is not empowered to grant.
- 17.4 The parties expressly agree to exclude from the Order the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods, 1980, and any successor thereto.

18 DISPUTE RESOLUTION

- 18.1 If any dispute arises in connection with the Order, the parties' respective senior representatives will, within ten (10) days after receipt of a written request from either party to the other, in accordance with these Conditions, meet in a good faith effort to resolve the dispute without recourse to legal proceedings. If the parties fail to reach agreement within thirty (30) days after receipt of the written request, any dispute or difference may be referred for resolution in accordance with the following Articles.
- 18.2 Where Exlar is or includes a United States domiciled entity, any dispute arising out of or relating to the Order or its breach shall be settled by arbitration in accordance with the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association then in effect. The parties may agree on the selection of a single arbitrator, but if they cannot so agree, each such party shall select an arbitrator and the two selected arbitrators shall select a third arbitrator. No arbitrator may be affiliated, whether directly or indirectly, with any of the parties, including, without limitation, as an employee, consultant, partner or shareholder. The arbitrator(s) shall permit each of the parties to the Arbitration to engage in a reasonable amount of discovery. In the event either party requests arbitration, the arbitration shall be held in New York, New York. The award by the arbitrator or arbitrators shall be final, and judgment upon the award rendered may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof.

If the dispute involves $5 million or less, the arbitration shall be conducted by a sole arbitrator. Either party to the Order may propose to the other the names of one or more persons, one of whom would serve as the sole arbitrator. If within 30 days after receipt by a party of a proposal made in accordance with this paragraph the parties have not reached agreement on the choice of an arbitrator, the sole arbitrator shall be appointed by the ICC in Accordance with its Rules. If the dispute involves more than $5 million, the arbitration shall be conducted by a tribunal of three arbitrators, one arbitrator to be named by Exlar one arbitrator to be named by Customer, and the third arbitrator (who shall serve as the chairperson of the tribunal) to be appointed by the two party- appointed arbitrators. If the two party-appointed arbitrators fail to appoint a third within 15 days of the appointment of the second of the two party-appointed arbitrators, then either party may request that the chairperson be appointed by the ICC in accordance with its Rules of Arbitration. The place of arbitration shall be London, England. Any arbitral tribunal constituted pursuant to the Order shall apply the law identified in Article 17.1 hereof to all disputes. The award of the arbitrator shall be final and binding upon the parties and may be entered and/or enforced in any court of competent jurisdiction. The parties acknowledge that the Order and any award rendered pursuant to it shall be governed by the United Nations Convention on the Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Arbitral Awards.

- 18.4 Notwithstanding the foregoing, Exlar may initiate suit in any jurisdiction for protection and enforcement of its intellectual property rights.

For any provision so severed from these Conditions, there shall be deemed to be substituted a like provision to accomplish the intent of the parties as closely as possible to the provision so severed, as determined by any court of competent jurisdiction, to the extent permitted by law.
